

Reach Today's Leading Companies Through GlobalSpec.

GlobalSpec gives industrial manufacturers access to engineering, technical and industrial buyers at key companies in their industries. GlobalSpec's more than 6.1 million registered users represent large OEMs, industry leaders and many Fortune 500 companies – a coveted population relying on GlobalSpec to find products, services and other technical information needed throughout their workday.

The top 100 companies using GlobalSpec include some of the most prominent names in business today:

"I looked for the sensor with the general search engine and got over a hundred pages of stuff, most of which were irrelevant ... GlobalSpec gives really focused solutions, and I was able to find the device I needed."

– Emily Shu, Staff Engineer, Intel Corp.

"GlobalSpec is my ultimate source; I haven't needed to look for other Web sites to use in my research."

– Corey Sigler, Information Systems Integration Technician, Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC)
